To

The Dewan-Secretary to the Government of Mysore

Sir,

We beg leave to submit herewith, for the approval of Government, copies of two inscriptions proposed to be engraved in connection with Shree Gopalakrishna Swami and Anjaneya Swami Temples which are being built in the Mallewaram Extension. It is proposed to consecrate the images of the above gods on the 22nd of August in commemoration of the assumption of powers of administration by H.H. Shree Krishnaraja Odeyar Bahadur. Consequently it is solicited that in commemoration of the above auspicious event this new Extension may be ordered to be named "Krishnaraja Nagara" from the above mentioned date.

We beg to State that we have the image of Shree Gopala Krishna Swami ready for Consecration, but we are sorry that our endeavours to procure an image of the Goddess Shree Lakshmi have not yet proved successful. We learn that it will take at least three months to have the image made. The arrangements now made do not, however, admit of such delay.
